DEATH OF MRS. COOK.

Mother-in-Law of Col. W. R. Passes Away.

Mrs. Lucretia E. Cook, of this city, died in Cincinnati Sunday night, where she was on a visit to son, Mr. George Cook. She was taken dangerously sick only a few days before, though her health had not been good for some time.

Her body will arrive here at 9:31 this morning and will be transferred to the 11:40 I. C. train and be taken via Gracey to Cadiz for interment.

Mrs. Cook was the widow of Judge George B. Cook, a distinguished jurist of Trigg county, who was elected circuit judge of this district many years ago at the age of 32 years. The district embraced many counties then, including Henderson, and Judge Cook defeated N. E. Gray in a memorable contest. Mrs. Cook was 71 years of age and made her home with her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Howell, in this city.

The funeral services will be held in Cadiz this afternoon and she will be buried by the side of her deceased husband.

SUICIDAL MANIA.

Two Attempts at Self Destruction—Landed in Asylum.

After two attempts to take her own life, Clarissa Caldwell, a colored woman of the Gracey neighborhood, was landed in the asylum here Friday.

She is the wife of Wesley Caldwell, a colored farm hand, and is about nineteen years old.

She had been showing signs of dementia for some time and about two weeks ago attempted suicide by hanging. She was discovered in a few minutes, however, and was soon revived. On last Tuesday she made another attempt at self-destruction, this time jumping into a well. The water was only a few feet deep and she was soon rescued.

She sustained some severe bruises as a result of the latter experience, as her body came in contact with some rocks in its descent.

The woman was brought to the city Friday, adjudged of unsound mind and at once placed in the asylum for treatment.

DIED OF STARVATION.

Miss Lizzie Floore, of Owingsville, Paralyzed for 35 Days.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 2.—At Owingsville to-day Miss Lizzie Moore, a beautiful young school mistress, died of starvation. She was partially paralyzed thirty-five days ago, and since that time had not partaken of a morsel of food.

ATROCITIES

Committed In the Wake of War in China.

Soldiers Put Boxers to Shame By Murder, Rapine, Arson and Outrage.

Taku, Aug. 30, Via Shanghai, Sept. 3.—The Chinese in the Pei Ho valley are paying dearly for the folly of their Government. The retribution they are suffering exceeds the ordinary penalties of war. Along the river and the roads traveled by the foreign troops between Tien Tsin and Peking an orgy of looting and destruction continues, with much useless slaughter of unoffending inhabitants. While the international forces were advancing the commanders, notably the Japanese, American and British, enforced a certain degree of protection for property not needed for military purposes.

At that time most of the population, except the fighting men, had fled. But now the people are returning to their homes, only to find no shelter or rice or occupation. In the overcrowded, famine-threatened districts away from the river their lives and small possessions are at the mercy of bands of soldiers traveling about without officers. Robbery, ravishing and murder are continuous. Roving parties of soldiers indulge in unrestricted outrages. With few exceptions, every town and village in the section traversed by the armies has been looted. The Russians are the worst offenders, with the French also contributing largely in proportion to their numbers. The Japanese, British and Americans are under better control. The conduct of the Cossacks has been especially atrocious.

FINE SPEECH.

Ollie James Stirred The Boys Up In Great Style.

Hon. Ollie James, of Marion, opened the Democratic Campaign here yesterday at 2 o'clock, addressing a crowd of 800 people. The courthouse was filled to overflowing and many were turned away unable to get inside the building. For an hour and a quarter the rough and ready orator from Crittenden poured such hot shot into the Republicans that the Democrats were roused to great enthusiasm. His discussion of National issues struck a responsive chord and there were loud cheers of approval. His strong arraignment of the Republican party and its lawless methods, beginning with military intimidation of voters and ending with the assassination of the Governor, was unanswerable from any standpoint of good citizenship. He called upon Mr. Yerkes to state his position on the question of pardoning the indicted and convicted assassins of Gov. Goebel.

He closed with a strong and earnest appeal to Democrats of all shades of opinion to unite to save the nation from imperialism and the state from government by assassination.

The speech was a fine effort and the speaker was overwhelmed with congratulations. The campaign has been most auspiciously opened.
